The Ten Commandments

Ephesians 2:14-16 Law of Moses Nailed to the Cross

“For he is our peace, who made both one, and brake down the middle wall of partition, having abolished in the flesh the enmity, (even) the law of commandments (contained) in ordinances; that he might create in himself of the two one new man, (so) making peace; and might reconcile them both in one body unto God through the cross, having slain the enmity thereby”

“Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.”

The Ten Commandments

In Ephesians 2 & Colossians 2, Paul clearly shows that the Old Covenant, including the Ten Commandments, is done away, abolished by Christ.

“to cause to cease, put an end to, do away with, annul, abolish” (Romans 3:31; Ephesians 2:15) (Thayer's Greek Lexicon)

Conclusion:

Since the Old Covenant (Law) has been abolished, no one can appeal to it for support of any religious teaching to bind on man today.

1. It was given only to the Jews and now even they are free from it.
2. The Jewish law came to an end with the death of Christ on the cross.

17

Conclusion:

However, all of the Ten Commandments are repeated in the New Testament, but one.

These are bound upon us, not because they were given to Israel by God, but because they are given to us by Jesus Christ.
